

Map of location

International approaches to technology transfer: successful strategies

Address:

Barcelona Activa Auditorium
Llacuna, 162
08018 Barcelona

www.biocat.cat

Barcelona, October 24th

research value development cluster innovation biology biomedicine biotechnology biotechnology medicine biotechno

Biocat is the Catalonia biocluster organization that promotes biotechnology and biomedicine in Catalonia. One of the main goals of Biocat is building the right environment to turn research into innovation as well as fostering biotechnology as a key economic driver for the country.

According to this commitment, the workshop aims to provide participants with the challenge of discussing successful strategies in technology transfer from academy to industry and stimulating the debate in order to share global best practices.

PROGRAMME

- 9:00 Registration
9:30 Welcome speech
Dr. Montserrat Vendrell, CEO - Biocat.

Catalan Experiences in Technology Transfer

- 9:45 "Innovation in Hospitals: the case of Corporació Sanitària Parc Taulí in Sabadell"
Dr. Lluís Blanch, Scientific Director - Corporació Sanitària Parc Taulí.
10:15 "Technology Transfer in the University of Barcelona. Experience of the Agency of Valorization and Commercialization of Research Results"
Dr. Josep M^a Palacios, Director - AVCRI (Agència de Valorització i Comercialització dels Resultats de la Investigació).

- 10:45 Coffee Break

International Experiences in Technology Transfer

- 11:15 "University Technology Transfer Opportunities and Challenges - the Swedish Experience"
Dr. Anders Hallgren, Executive Director - Lund University Innovation System (LUIS) - Sweden.
11:45 "Hadasit Bio-Holdings: Technology Transfer Taken Public / From IP to IPO"
Dr. Ophir Shahaf, CEO - Hadasit Bio-Holdings Ltd- Israel.
12:15 "Licensing, start up, direct investment strategies at San Raffaele Science Park"
Dr. Marco Baccanti, Managing Director - San Raffaele Biomedical Science Park - Italy.
12:45 Round table/Open debate
Chaired by Dr. Montserrat Vendrell - CEO Biocat.
13:30 Closing Session

Confirmation requested at:

biocat@biocat.cat/ +34 93 310 33 30

Organized by:

With the support of:

Barcelon activa

