

BIOGRAPHY

Harald von Witzke, Ph.D.

Humboldt University of Berlin, Germany

Professor and Chair for International Agricultural Trade and Development

Department of Agricultural Economics and Social Sciences

ACADEMIC BACKGROUND

Göttingen University, Germany, Dr. sc. agr. habil. (post doctoral degree), agricultural economics, 1982

Göttingen University, Germany, Dr. sc. agr. (Ph. D.), agricultural economics, 1977

Göttingen University, Germany, Dipl.-Ing. agr. (M. Sc.), 1974

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Professor and Chair for International Agricultural Trade and Development,
Humboldt University, Berlin, Germany, since 1994.

Assistant Professor, Associate Professor, and Professor, Department of Agricultural and Applied Economics, University of Minnesota, St. Paul, MN, USA, 1983-1994.

Director, Center for International Food and Agricultural Policy, University of Minnesota, St. Paul, MN, USA, 1991-1992.

Associate Professor (Privatdozent), Göttingen University, Germany, 1982-1983.

Research Fellow and Research Associate, Göttingen University, Germany, 1974-1982.

AREAS OF ACADEMIC EMPHASIS:

International Agricultural Trade and Economic Development; World Food Security; Quality Regulation in International Trade; Distributive Effects of Globalization in World Agriculture; Climate Change and World Agriculture.

Selected Publications:

Harald von Witzke et al., Global Agricultural Market Trends and Their Impacts on European Union Agriculture. Humboldt University of Berlin, Institute of Agricultural Economics, Working Paper 84/2008.

Harald von Witzke et al., Effects of the Common Agricultural Policy and U.S. Farm Policy on Agricultural Land Markets. Washington, D. C.: German Marshall Fund of the United States, 2007.

Harald von Witzke and Steffen Noleppa, Reduction of Greenhouse Gases N₂O and CH₄ in German Agriculture. Berlin, Germany: WWF, 2007

Harald von Witzke, Agriculture in the Ecological Market Economy: World Food Security vs. Climate Change Policy and Bio-energy. Humboldt University of Berlin, Institute of Agricultural Economics, Working Paper 80/2007.

Harald von Witzke and Steffen Noleppa, Agricultural and Trade Policy Reform and Inequality. Humboldt University of Berlin, Institute of Agricultural Economics, Working Paper 79/2007.