

INTERNATIONAL PROJECT MANAGER

Vall d'Hebron Research Institute (VHIR) is a public sector institution, located in Barcelona (Spain) that promotes and develops innovative biomedical research at the University Hospital Vall d'Hebron. VHIR is oriented towards finding solutions to the health problems of the citizens and has the will to contribute to the scientific, educational, social and economic development within its area of competence.

This position will be located within the Competitive Research Development Unit, that promotes the attraction of competitive resources through the leadership of HUVH and VHIR researchers in research projects funded by regional, national and international private and public agencies. The aim of the Unit is to contribute to the leadership of VHIR in the biomedical research carried out in our environment, the attraction of competitive resources through the leadership of HUVH and VHIR researchers in research projects funded by regional, national and international private and public agencies.

Job description

Education and Qualifications:

- College or University degree (Master or Doctoral degree)
- Minimum +5 years of work experience in International Project Management (proposal writing and presentation) within the health area (EC FP7, H2020, ERC, MSCA, USA NIH)
- Excellent written and oral communication skills in English. Additional languages will also be positively valued, especially French and Portuguese
- Personal skills & attributes: We are seeking a dynamic person with a demonstrated capacity of team work and previous experience in Project Management of International Consortia and Research Networks. Strong communication and organizational skills will be required. Business oriented.

Main Responsibilities and Duties:

- Assessment and support in the definition of an Institutional participation strategy in international research funding programmes within the health area (EC H2020, USA NIH, Lat Am).
- Identification of international research funding programmes, search for partners, and participation in international research forums, networks and decision bodies.
- Support in the presentation of proposals (work programme definition, provision of costs and time estimate, consortium building, assistance in proposal writing), direct contact with EU/International officers.

Labour conditions:

- Gross annual salary: € 35.000 Euros.
- Full-time position (40h/week)
- Permanent position

Interested candidates should submit a cover letter and a full Curriculum Vitae with the reference “International Project Manager” to the following email address: seleccio@vhir.org.