

Grants Project Manager

Transplant Biomedicals develops innovative medical technologies for the preservation of biological material and organ transplantation through a process of innovation, research, development, manufacturing and commercialization with the passion to improve the quality of life of the patients.

Transplant Biomedicals is hiring a Grants Project Manager for its research and development projects.

EXPERIENCE

- Previous experience in the management of national and European grants.
- Experience in international projects valued.

EDUCATION

- Doctor with college studies related with life sciences (Biology, Medicine, Pharmacy, etc.)
- High level of English valued.

CAPABILITIES

- Project management, collaboration capabilities, analysis and proactivity.
- Excellent communication skills.
- Clear focus on achieving results.

TASKS

- Identify and manage collaborations with research groups and international companies.
- Analyze and determine the competitive projects of interest to the company.
- Preparation and management of requests for competitive projects at national, European and international level.
- Monitor the development of projects already in progress in the company.
- Monitor and justify budgets for granted projects.

OFFERING

- Full time Grants Project Management.
- Remuneration according to the candidate's profile.
- Dynamic and challenge based environment in start-up with high growth potential.

Interested candidates may send their curriculum vitae with the subject, Grants Project Manager before the 17/03/2016 to the following address: jobs@transplantbiomed.com