

INTELLIGENT PHARMA

Developing solutions. Discovering drugs.

Intelligent Pharma is a biotechnology company dedicated to developing, commercializing and using new computational technologies for drug discovery. According to our clients' needs, we carry out customized computational chemistry projects using cutting-edge technologies.

To join our Software Development department we are looking for a

Scientific Software engineer

able to:

- Design & develop new computational chemistry tools
- Design & develop new software tools related to life sciences
- Maintain & improve our existing tools

We require

- Software developer/engineer with university degree in Computer Science
- Phd achieved before 29/2/2016
- Expertise in Java, R and Linux
- Expertise in Statistics, Machine Learning
- Web development, JavaScript, CSS
- Database/SQL (PostgreSQL, PL/SQL)
- Fluent English read/write/speak
- Good communication skills & ability to work in teams
- 2+ years working experience
- Expertise in agile methodologies

It will be appreciated:

- Knowledge in bioinformatics
- Experience in MVC frameworks

We offer

Full time contract, flexible working time

Join our scientific team which includes mathematics, computer science engineers, biologists, bioinformaticians...

Work in a very innovative company

Salary depending on the background and experience

Please send your CV and motivation letter to rrhh@intelligentpharma.com before 24/02/2016 specifying as subject "PhD/Software engineer"